Rev. Crawford will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Boller, the wizard, failed to make expenses in Baxter and his effects were left in Marshal Hemstreet's hands as security for the payment of several accounts.

Archie D. Neal of Chetopa, well known in this city, was married on Wednesday, June 7, at Maryville, Mo., to Miss Nannie Morehouse, daughter of ex-Governor Morehouse of Missouri.

Methodist Episcopal church services every Sunday. Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Class meeting 3 p. m. Epworth League 7:00 p. m. A most cordial welcome to everybody.

A Chetopa man has invented and secured a patent on a hedge trimmer. It is to be hoped that a few of the machines will be put in use in this section before long. The hedges in this vicinity are too high.

The electric road will be in operation from Carterville to Joplin on July 15 at which time the officers and directors of the company will visit Baxter Springs to see if our people are going to donate some water power and help secure the right of way between this place and Galena.

Carthage Banner: The right of way between here and Carterville for the Southwest Missouri Electric Railway company has been secured with the exception of one-half mile, and that distance will be covered within a week. This road will be in operation in Carthage and to Carterville by next January.

W. D. Pearson of Vark, owner of the double-headed mule colt, was in the city Tuesday and made this office a call. Mr. Pearson will start out and exhibit the colt as soon as he harvests his wheat, which he will begin doing in about a week. Mr. Pearson has about 55 acres of wheat and he says it will make a fine yield. His corn is looking first rate.

Exchange: How often do we hear people say: Where in the world do all the flies come from? It is simple enough. The toper makes the blue-bottle fly, the stern father makes the gad fly, the cyclone makes the house fly, the carpenter makes the saw fly, the driver makes the horse fly, the grocer makes the sand fly, and the boarder makes the butter fly.

A meeting of the Baxter Springs Board of Trade will be called soon to take steps looking to the giving of some of our water power to the Southwest Missouri Electric Railway company upon the condition that it builds its line to this city. The meeting should be well attended because the road will be built to this place if some water power is donated. Our people can well afford to do this.

Joplin News: The citizens of Carterville held an indignation meeting on Wednesday night of last week and passed resolutions not altogether complimentary to the Southwest Missouri Electric Railway company, claiming it is not building its road as per contract when the franchise was granted; that the company was to build and operate its line to the Troup mines, but that the road was not within a half mile of there at the present terminal point.

Galena Republican: The following from our former fellowtownsman, Ben Warrington, explains itself: "Welly, we have a bouncing boy—looks just like its pa—change the address of my paper to Angel's Camp, California." We understand now why the place is called Angel's Camp. Go West, maids—young or old. You may get to be an angel and with the Angels stand; may cut a dash or make a mash; get a ring upon your hand. In course of time like Benny, you'll write us from out thar: "Change my address to Angel's Camp, it looks just like its mar."

Joplin News: May Calvin, the horse thief of female personage, has at last been "snared," at least that is the impression of the officers of this city who have a fair description of that not only noted but troublesome girl. It will be remembered May called at W. V. White's livery barn a few weeks ago and hired a buggy and horse to drive to East Joplin, forgetting to return it. Last week Mr. White recovered his horse from a herd being driven through this city. He had searched diligently for the harness and buggy since, but no trace of them could be found. Yesterday a girl answering the description of May, was arrested at Columbus, Kan., for a disturbance and today Constable Jenkins went to that city to bring the prisoner to Joplin if she proves to be the Calvin girl. She is also wanted at Pittsburg, Fort Scott, Nevada and other points for horse stealing, and her future career is likely to be one of much unpleasantness.

JOPLIN CLUB PICNIC.

At a meeting of the Joplin Commercial Club held Wednesday evening the railroad committee reported favorably on the question of the club taking an excursion to some neighboring town for a day's picnic. A letter was read from President Daniels of the Baxter Springs club tendering the Joplin club the use of the beautiful grove adjacent to Spring river where there is plenty of good water, good boating and good fishing, and assuring the club that its members would be welcomed at that city if they should favor Baxter with a visit. On motion it was decided to take the trip on one week from next Tuesday, June 27, and Baxter Springs was chosen as the place to spend the day. Each member of the club was given permission to invite one or more of his friends to join in the excursion, but no general invitation was issued to the public. The railroad committee was instructed to secure excursion rates and a special train if possible. So says the Joplin News.

DIDN'T ADVERTISE.

"Boller, the wizard," who appeared at the city hall last Thursday and Friday nights, showed to small audiences. The show was to have been given on Saturday night, but it wasn't, for the reason that there was no crowd out. The show is a good one, but it was not advertised and scarcely anybody knew there was to be a show. The effects of the company are in the hands of Marshal Hemstreet as security for the payment of bills contracted here.

There is a moral in the above. While the show is a good one it was not patronized because it was not advertised and the people generally did not know of it. If a merchant wishes to sell his goods he has got to let the people know he has them before he can sell them. The News is the best advertising medium in Cherokee county. Try its columns.

The depot is still on the move as we go to press.

The rains this week were a little too heavy to suit the farmers.

Ed. Covey announces the arrival of a bouncing boy at his domicile.

The bazar announced to be held on June 21 has been postponed indefinitely for the reason that no room can be obtained.

The Masonic lodge of this city contemplates giving an ice cream social on June 24 for the benefit of the Masonic home.

The council held no meeting Tuesday night on account of the illness of the mayor. A session is being held as we go to press this (Friday) afternoon.

Mr. P. M. Pearson, a graduate of Baker university, will give an elocutionary entertainment at the M. E. church on Friday evening, June 30, for the benefit of the church. He comes well recommended.

The Methodist Sunday school enjoyed a picnic at Camp Logan Thursday. A good time was had notwithstanding the rain and the day was most pleasantly spent in games of various kinds.

Chetopa Democrat: It would appear from looking over some of the old records of the city, that the officers of Chetopa in an early day had but little regard for law when it comes to charging up their salaries. We notice that in one instance a mayor charged $75 for nine month's services, and that councilmen were paid $50 per year, when the law says they shall receive but $1 per year. The records show that everybody was grabbing for the city's money.

Kansas City Journal: Lieutenant Governor Daniels of Kansas, wants to ride into the United States senate on a radical tax reform. He proposes to levy a graduated property tax, so fashioned that the heavy property owner will find his estate entirely too expensive to keep and dispose of it to the homeseeker, while the ordinary farmer will pay no tax at all. Mr. Peffer will have to look after his laurels. Daniels' proposition will appeal wonderfully to the populist judgment and may result in giving the lieutenant governor a presidential nomination. For genuine crankiness it will be hard to beat.
